PREAMBLE

In recognition of the fundamental principles of integrity, collaboration, and inclusivity, Masaryk University Model United Nations (MUNI MUN) embraces a commitment to excellence and community engagement. Guided by the values of transparency, respect, and continuous improvement, we establish these Community Guidelines and Policies to govern our collective endeavours. With a steadfast dedication to fostering leadership, promoting diversity, and nurturing the holistic development of our members within the university community, we embark on this journey towards shared growth and achievement. Through adherence to these principles and practices, we endeavour to create an environment where every voice is valued, every contribution is recognized, and every individual thrives.

MISSION

Empowering tomorrow's leaders, Masaryk University Model United Nations is dedicated to cultivating a community of students committed to diplomacy, cooperation, and sustainable change. Through simulated diplomatic sessions, rigorous debate, and collaborative problem-solving, we provide a platform for students to develop critical thinking, leadership skills, and a nuanced understanding of international affairs. With a focus on inclusivity, diversity, and mutual respect, we aim to inspire empathy, foster cultural exchange, and promote dialogue across borders. Grounded in the principles of the United Nations, we strive to empower our members to become catalysts for positive change in their communities and the world at large.

REPUBLIC OF PARAGUAY

Since we are a part of Masaryk University, which has always respected and professed the democratic values, from the beginning we do share these values with the university's academic community alongside with our own. Our values are:

Respect

We honor the dignity and perspectives of all individuals, fostering an inclusive environment of mutual understanding and appreciation.

Freedom

We support the rights of individuals to express themselves freely and participate in diverse discourse.

Empowerment

We strive to empower individuals to take initiative, make meaningful contributions, and become agents of positive change within our community and beyond.

Responsibility

We uphold the duty to exercise our freedoms thoughtfully, ethically, and with accountability to our community.

These values serve as the guiding principles of our organization, shaping our culture and driving us towards our shared mission.

COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

1. Flat Organizational Structure with Role-Based Titles:

Our organization adheres to a flat organizational structure where each individual holds a defined role and set of objectives. Each role is meticulously outlined with specific responsibilities and expectations.

2. Transparent Community:

We strive to maintain transparent organizational pathways focused solely on the short-term development and involvement of individuals within the organization and the university community.

3. Skill-Based Recognition:

We recognize and reward our members based on their contributions, passion, accountability, and commitment to the project at hand.

4. Cross-Functional Team Leadership:

We encourage for collaboration and teamwork through the formation of cross-functional teams, comprised of members with diverse skills. This approach breaks down silos, promotes knowledge sharing, and fosters innovation.

5. Peer-to-Peer Feedback and End-to-End Evaluation:

We implement a network within our transparent community wherein members provide feedback and evaluate each other. This process identifies strengths and areas for improvement, cultivating a culture of continuous learning and individual development.

6. Empowerment and Autonomy:

We empower our members to make decisions and take ownership of their objectives and duties. Through providing the necessary autonomy, we encourage problem-solving and innovation without unnecessary micromanagement.

7. Open Communication:

We foster an environment of open communication where members feel comfortable sharing their ideas, concerns, and feedback through regular team meetings and one-on-one discussions.

8. Study-Life Balance and Well-being:

We prioritize the well-being of our members by promoting a healthy study-life balance. We offer support and resources to help members manage their responsibilities effectively.

9. Values-Driven Culture:

Our organization is guided by values of integrity, respect, inclusivity, and community engagement. We uphold these values in all aspects of our work, fostering a supportive and welcoming environment for all members of the university community. All decisions and actions within the organization align with Masaryk University Mission, Values and Vision policy.
